F. The following items constitute the Applicant's Scholarship Program for Academic Year- Fall 2024 submission. Only those Applicant submissions that contain ALL items listed below will be eligible for consideration:

1. The scholarship essay will be type-written on the announced topic and in accordance with the instructions in paragraph E, above. The essay shall contain a minimum of 1,000 words and a maximum of 1,500 words. Applicant shall develop the topic as they deem appropriate, however, the essay must be the original and exclusive work of the Applicant.
2. CERTIFICATION of relationship to a Lincoln Land Chapter MOAA Member and Applicant Age. (The enclosure to this announcement shall be used for this purpose.)
3. The designation of an institution of higher education that Applicant will be attending in the Fall 2024. Applicant must provide the name and address of the institution of higher education Applicant is, or will be, enrolled in for the Fall 2024 semester (or equivalent).

G. ELIGIBILITY.

A. An Applicant to this Scholarship Program for Academic Year- Fall 2024 can be a Member or the spouse; natural, adopted or foster child; stepchild; grandchild; great grandchild, niece or nephew of any Member of the Lincoln Land Chapter MOAA. A Member of Lincoln Chapter MOAA is a person who meets the membership requirements specified in Article IV of the Lincoln Land Chapter MOAA Bylaws and who is considered "in good standing" (current in payment of Chapter dues).

B. Applicant must be at least 18 years of age on or before September 1, 2024.

C. Applicant must be enrolled in, or accepted for enrollment into an institution of higher education for the Fall 2024 semester (or equivalent) for a minimum of nine semester hours or equivalency. An institution of higher education may be a program, junior college, college, university, technical or trade school, which awards a degree, diploma or certification upon completion of its curriculum. Providing the institution meets the foregoing requirement, the Scholarship Award shall be made without regard to awardee's academic level. As example, an awardee may be a Ph.D. candidate, a graduate or undergraduate student, a junior college student, or a student at a trade school. For at least six of the nine qualifying semester hours (or equivalent) applicant must be scheduled to attend courses in a resident, as differing from on-line (Internet) course enrollment status.

D. An awardee may not be considered for another Scholarship Award for five years or until August, 2029.

H. GENERAL INFORMATION.

A. Only essays prepared in Word® can be accepted. Applicant must be prepared to submit an electronic version of their essay at the request of the Scholarship Committee Chairperson.

B. The Chapter Scholarship Committee will judge essays on the basis of grammar, spelling, topical development and presentation. The essay will be formatted in accordance with the latest Modern Language Association (MLA) guidance. Essays shall be evaluated using Harbrace College Handbook and Webster's New World Dictionary as guides. Sources used in the essay must be properly cited.

C. The Certification page, the enclosure to this announcement, shall be used as the cover page for Applicant essays. No title page or any other form of essay identification shall be used.

- D. Applicant must designate and provide evidence of their acceptance into, or attendance at, an institution of higher education. Items considered to meet this requirement include acceptance letters, recent grade reports, or similar official documents. Based on this information, the Chapter Scholarship Committee shall determine if the residency requirement has been or will be met.
- E. All decisions made by the Chapter Scholarship Committee are final.
- F. All Applicant submissions become the exclusive property of the Lincoln Land Chapter MOAA.
- G. Lincoln Land Chapter MOAA will not be responsible for any delays in receiving Applicant submissions.
- H. If no Applicant essays are received; or if, in the judgment of the Chapter Scholarship Committee, the submissions are inadequate; or if the Scholarship Program Award Winner is later determined to be ineligible for Scholarship Award, the Scholarship Award may be suspended for that Award Year.
- I. The awardee will be notified in advance, and will be requested to attend, as a guest, a Chapter meeting to be recognized as the Scholarship Program Award Winner.
- J. The Scholarship Program will be given maximum publicity by the Chapter and may include newspaper articles, Award presentation at commencement exercises, notification to school officials and other actions deemed appropriate. Awardee agrees to reasonably participate in such activities.
- K. Any tax liability resulting from an Award shall be the sole responsibility of the Awardee.
- L. In the event circumstances prevent the awardee from attending an institution of higher education at the beginning of Academic Year-Fall 2024, providing awardee meets the eligibility requirements in paragraph II C (for any semester equivalent through Spring 2024) the awardee retains the right to receive this Scholarship Amount.
